a. LIMS

(b) In a recent Configuration Control Board meeting it was agreed that the Functional Requirements Document (FRD) would be shelved as obsolete. The Detailed System Requirements Document (DSRD) contains, among other material, a much improved and more accurate version of the original FRD content. The DSRD content will be traced to the original OL Objectives document to assure that development includes all of these objectives.

(c) At last count the OL purchased data dictionary (DC-2) contains 1,866 entries, representing five categories of system requirements.

b. Regulation Revisions

The following regulations were reviewed, commented upon, concurred in, or published during the past week:

Contract Personnel - Concurred, with the proviso that a change will be made to state that the procedures of this regulation do not apply to contracts written by logistics officers under the authority of
